Luke 18:9-14

December 6, 2026 • Lesson 1

Have volunteers read the narrative.

Narrator: "And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself," Pharisee: "God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess."

Narrator: "And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying,"

Publican: "God be merciful to me a sinner."

Narrator: "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted, Luke 18:9-14."

"For every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he
that humbleth himself
shall be exalted."

Luke 18:14

Mark 10:13-16

December 13, 2026 • Lesson 2

One day, a group of people came to see Jesus. They were bringing their children to Him. Sadly, the disciples did not welcome them. They tried to stop the children from coming to Jesus. Jesus saw how His disciples treated the children and adults, and He was displeased. He told His disciples not to keep the children or anyone else from coming to Him. Jesus explained that to be saved a person must have childlike faith in Him. When the children reached Jesus, He picked them up, held them in His arms and blessed them. Jesus wants everyone to come to Him in faith.

"Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein."

Mark 10:15
