Lesson 1

The Redeemer in Prophecy

Lesson Objective

I will know Christ, our
Redeemer, fulfilled Old Testament prophecies.

Bible Principle

Jesus is God in a human body.

Parallel Passage

A Son Is Given

Isaiah 9:6, 7

Memory Verse:
"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given."

Isaiah 9:6

God with Us

Genesis 3:15; Isaiah 7:14; Luke 1:26-38

God knew Adam and Eve would make the choice to disobey Him. He knew they would need a Savior. He made the plan to redeem His creation before He created Adam and Eve. He provided a way to redeem—to buy back—all Adam turned over to Satan.

The one who could buy back God's creation could not have a sin nature. The Redeemer would have to be sinless. He would have to die to pay the price for Adam's sin. The only pure and sinless person who could buy back God's creation was God Himself. He loved the people He created. He was willing to come to earth and die to redeem His creation. God was willing to send His only begotten Son into the world to die for the sin of the whole world.

God promised the Redeemer would come. He made that promise to Adam and Eve soon after they sinned. He promised the Seed, or descendant of Eve, would defeat Satan. By covering Adam and Eve with animal skins, He taught them the Redeemer would die to cover their sin. They could repent for their disobedience to God and believe in the Redeemer God promised.

The Old Testament prophet, Isaiah, told how the Redeemer would come into the world. A certain virgin—a sexually pure woman—would conceive a son in a supernatural way. Her son's Father would be God, not a man. Her son would be called Immanuel, which means "God with us."

Jesus was the Redeemer. His birth happened exactly as Isaiah said it would. Jesus was God incarnate—God in a human body. He died for every person because of the sin nature inherited from Adam. To be saved, a person must repent of his sinfulness and believe in Jesus, the Redeemer.

THE REDEEMER IS BORN

The Redeemer was Jesus, God's Son. The angel Gabriel came to Nazareth and talked to a virgin named Mary. He told her God had chosen her to be the mother of His Son. God's Holy Spirit made the virgin birth of Jesus possible.
